nor-elect McKinney to-day, which I am permitted to give in full:

Carro, Eavry, November 13, 1882.

My Dear McKinney,—I have this moment received the London papers of the 6th con abling the first election news from America, and easily head and frost of all the good intelligence is your superb triumph. I would not permit my-soil to doubt that, romote as I am, my congratulations will not be as we come as they are success to me. Aside from my joy at your personal triumph I am junitant over the supreme importance of such as endotrement of a position I have always fought for in Verginia—that the color line in politics was justified, not only or chiefly by expediency, but by the highest states mansorp, and on the most calightened considers ion of the interest of all the neony, the sincks included. If it precisely the weak, the ignerant, and the help-less who most need intelligent, upright, and just administration.

But I don't want to be turn only to hooray, and duninjustration.

But I don't want to lecture only to hooray, and do it, eld fellow, with full lungs and a fuller heart. If live I shall be on in 1822 to shake your hand. Meanwhile, long life to your Excel-Yours, very faithfully. A. M. KEILEY.

CLAY HILL, ENFIRED, ENG., Nov. 22, 1889.

Hen. Phil. W. McKinney:
Accept my hearty congratulations. I am indeed giad to read of your election as Governor of Virginia, and have no don't that under your guidance the grand oid State will prosper in bevery way. By the same multi firmant you a portrait of Sir Walter Raleigh and a photograph of his cottage at Enhald. When has been pulled down within the last few mooths. I think they may be of interest, as Sir Walter Raleigh took such a promitent part in the formation and foundation of the Colony of Virginia. Tradition are than the woods near here the first meeting between Queen Enzabeth and the loyal Sir Walter took place.

With best wishes for you and Mrs. McKinney's happiness, I am yours faithuilly.

pondence of the Richmond Dispatch.) PEVERSBURG, VA., December 4, 1889. At an early hour this mornings a freight train a the Norfolk and Western railroad jumped the track at Disputanta, a station about four-teen miles east of this city. The engine and four cars were detailed, the cars being badly broken. The engineer and fireman escaped by jumping fram the engine. The accident was caused by a misp.acca switch. Mr. John J. Campbell is confused to his bed at his residence, on Hearty street, by a severe cold. He has been sick for the past two weeks, and his conducton is regarded as critical by his many friends.

FREDERICKSBURG. The Pendleton Trial-The Confederate

Dead. (Special telegram to the Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., December 4.—The third day's proceedings of the trial of Pendleton for the murder of Celonel Goodwin began in the County Court this morning. Shortly after the court opened the evidence for the prosecution in court opened the evidence for the prosecution in chief was concluded and the jury were taken to the scene of the murder. On the return of the jury this evening the evidence for the defence was begun, and the court adjourned at a late hour without concluding the evidence for the defence, which will probably occupy the entire day to-morrow. The prisener to-day was exceedingly restless and for the drattime since his arrest displayed considerable emotion, the number of speciators in attendance was larger than yesterday and more interest is being manifested than in any previous case tried in the Courty Court.

Mrs. J. N. Barney, president of the Ledies Confederate Memorial Association, received to-day a check for fishfrom teneral Jubai A. Early for the replacing of the headstones to the Con-federate dead in this city, which is sadly needed.

Why from

CATARRH?

Cured

POND'S EXTRACT

As this man was. "I have been a constant sufferer for years from about Nov. 1st until the following June) from severe colds in my head and throat, in fact, the whole mucous tissue from the nose down to and including the bronchial tubes, were more or less affected. It was fast developing into CHRONIC CATARRH. I had tried most known remedies and was finally persuaded last March to use POND'S EXTRACT. I snuffed it up my nose and inhaled it; gargled my throat with it and swallowed it. It relieved me wonderfully and has effected almost a radical cure. I have used it for burns, bruises, and sprains, and believe it invaluable in such cases. I believe also that no family should be without it in the house, feeling as I do that it comprises a whole Pharmacopeia within itself." FREDERIC E. FINCK.
